Home-Run Due

Rudy Clouts Two, Hank One Against Brownies

Les Tietje Hands Tigers First Shutout After Detroit Sluggers Win Opener

By Charles P. Ward

By Charles P. Ward

Preston Rudolph York and Henry & Greenberg resuméd their home-run duel Monday as the Tigers divided a double-header with the Little Brownies of St. Louis before a crowd of 48,000 at Briggs Stadium. The Tigers won the first game, thanks to the mighty clubbing of the two muscle men, but were shut out in the final, 3 to 0, because Leslie Tietje, who hurled crareful about what he served up to large Rudolph and larger Henry, has in hinth and tenth of the season. Old No. 9 soared into the lett field paviling with the bases loaded in the first inning. It was the third time this season that the Cherokee Thunderbird lifted a four-master among the assembled guests with all bases occupied. This leaves him one below the record for this type of wallop over a season of play.

Roberts' Feat Keeps Promise to the first hand the seventh. The season of the lett field pavilion. Rudolph make this one in the seventh. The season of the lett field pavilion. The first half of a provise to the first paviling that the first half of a provise to the first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The last half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The last half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The last half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The last half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the promise two months ago on the West Coast.

The first half of the