Work in Outfield O. K.

"He's not bad out there," said Mickey. "I think he is going to do all right."

The shifting of York was not the only change Cochrane made. He shook up the entire line-up as few Tiger line-ups have been shaken in recent years. He installed Bill Rogell at his old position as leadoff man, put Pete Fox in third place, back of Dixie Walker, moved Charley Gehringer to the clean-up position and dropped Hank Greenberg to sixth place, in back of York.

•rdie Tebbetts, who did the catching, batted seventh and Don Ross eighth.

Everybody in the Tiger line-up got at least one hit with the exception of Tcbbetts and Ross. Gehringer, the cleanup kid, hit a double and a triple. Dixie Walker and Lengthy Gawge Gill, who did the pitching, hit the other triples.

Gill Likes Sultry Day

Lengthy Gawge was in fine form Thursday. The sultry weather just suited him and he restricted the Mackmen to six well-scattered hits. He shut them out for five innings, but got into minor difficulties in the sixth after two men were out, and the Mackmen pushed across their only runs. He permitted them to put only one man on base after that.

The Tigers won the game in the third and fourth innings when they put over three runs with the aid of three Merriweilian clouts.

Gill accounted for the tally registered in the third. First up in the inning, he tripled over the head of Sam Chapman in center and scored when Nelson loosed a wild pitch.

In the fourth Gehringer opened with a triple to center and scored when York lifted his homer into Please Turn to Page 24—Column 1

DET193805190 part 2

Clipped By:

jordan_raddick Tue, Sep 12, 2017

