Tiger Homers Defeat Macks

York and Greenberg Each Hit One

Continued from First Sport Page

Continued from First Sport Page
the left-field seats. Greenberg hit a hard smash to center after that, but Chapman succeeded in getting his hands on the bail and holding it for the putout.

The Tigers added a single run to their total in the fifth but should have scored more. After one was out Rogell singled to center, stole second and went to third when Hayes threw the ball into center field. Willie tried to parlay the thing into a four-base jaunt, however, and was thrown out by Chapman as he slid into the plate. It was a nifty toss by the former California collegian.

Walker then chased Moses to the right-field screen with a long triple. Walkace got his hand on the ball when he tried for a leaping catch but bumped against the screen and was unable to hold it.
Dixis scored when Fox singled to left.

A walk to York and a home run

Dixie scored when Fox singled to left.

A walk to York and a home run by Greenberg gave the Tigers two more runs in the sixth before they called it a day. Two walks and a bad throw by Nelson enabled them to put men on second and third with two out in the eighth, but Ambler kept them from scoring by making a one-hand catch of Tebbets' low liner for the final out.

ing by making a one-hand catch of Tebbets' low liner for the final out.

The Macks had men on the bases in the second, third and fourth innings but were unable to get past Gill's tight pitching until the sixth.

Ambler opened the Philadelphians' only drive with a double to left but was erased almost immediately when Werber bounced to Rogell. After Siebert nad forced Werber, Johnson walked and Chapman doubled to right, scoring Seibert and Johnson. Chapman got around to third when Rogell fumbled a grounder by Hayes but was left when Lodigiani fouled to Greenberg.

The game seemed to justify Connie Mack's faith in Chapman, the former All-America football player from the University of California, who has been installed as the Mackmen's regular center fielder. In addition to driving in the A's only two runs, he played well in the field and also got off a dandy throw to the plate to retire Rogell in the fifth.

DET193805190 part 3

Clipped By:

jordan_raddick Tue, Sep 12, 2017

