https://www.newspapers.com/image/97678244

Gill Shelled from Mound

The Brownies pared the Tiger lead to one run by fabricating an-other tally in the third with the aid of an error by Ross. It was Mills who launched this sortie. He singled to left and went to second when Clift bounded sharply to Ross, who fumbled the ball. Gill Kress, after which Bell lined to York, Clift scoring after the catch. After resting through the fourth, the Brownies shelled Gill from the premises in the fifth, scoring three times to take the lead. Clift started the trouble with a single to left but Kress was out when Walker went into deep center to make an over-the-shoul-der catch of his long drive. After Bell singled to right, West doubled to left, scoring both Bell and Clift. McQuinn then flied to left, West scoring when York let the ball get away from him. Wade succeeded Gill on the mound before McQuinn went to bat and thus was the victim of the error.

Wade got a bad break in the sixth and the Brownies made two more runs. The bad break oc-curred when Fox stumbled and fell while chasing a fly by Clift after two were out. The ball fell safe and Clift was credited with a triple. Kress enabled the Brownies to cash in on the break by hitting a home run into the left field stands.

Thoroughly rested after doing nothing but sitting down from the first through the fifth, the Tigers broke loose in the sixth and scored three times to reduce the Brownies' lead to one run. They then went out and took the lead by scoring twice in the seventh and once in the eighth.

In the sixth, Fox, Tebbetts and

Ross hit successive singles, Fox scoring on Ross' smash to left. After Laabs, batting for Wade, walked, filling the bases, Rogell and Walker popped out. Gehringer saved the situation, however, by doubling to center, scoring Tebbetts and Ross.

York Connects Again

York started the seventh inning rally with his second home run of the game, a drive into the left field pavilion. Fox then bounced a triple off the left field wall and a triple off the left field wall and scored when Tebbetts singled to left. Bonetti was the victim of this attack, having gone in to pitch for the Brownies after Mazzera batted for Mills in the St. Louis seventh. Julio was lifted after Tebbetts singled, and Linke finished the game for the Brown. finished the game for the Brown-

Greenberg accounted for the run the Tigers scored in the eighth, lifting a home run into the upper deck of the left field pavilion. This proved very useful, for Hughes, batting for Linke, hit one into the supersection in the one into the same sector in the ninth.